Manifold heights P.S  Week beginning 7th of March 2016.

Coordinator: Jessica Kevelham

The children have had another great week in OSHC, lots of board game being played with everyone.

Pictueka is still a big favoutite, Samuel, Will, Sasha, Tyson and Quinn getting involved. Zara, Henry and Alice playing games of UNO with each other.

The children have been engaged in lots of drawings this week with Lochlan, Sean, Bjorn, Liam, Amelie, Olivia, Alice and Alisha all getting involved and being super creative.

Will Patrick and Morgan enjoyed some time in the quiet area reading some of our books. A few of the girls still enjoying dressing up with our dress ups.

Lots of footy has been happening this week with the boys all getting a little bit excited for the footy season to start. While Lewis, Ben, Jordan, Samuel, Will, Juliet and Ruben played a game of dodge ball on the playground.

Star of the week this week from Manifold heights goes to Amelie Bock for her bright and bubbly attitude in OSHC. Well done Amelie.

Star of the week this week from Holy Spirit goes to Conor Maxey for making new friends in OSHC and having fun. Well done Conor.

Jess and staff.
